

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, undated, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. HOTEL CHELSEA. Atlantic City, My dear Alec:

We have just missed you terribly. The days seem so long without you. I couldn't stand it any longer.

I am terribly distressed about Daisy's loss, David lost a lot of money in the Telharmonium, that is why they have been feeling so hard up, and now to have this come. If only they don't lose their baby next, I am getting scared and want to go right home.

Wasn't it nice of Tom to telegraph me. We were all so much excited but hardly hoped to see him as the wind was contrary.

With much love and don't you fail me Sunday for I want you and want to get home.

Your Mabel.
